

Freedom

Part 1 - Heroes of the war

Is there a hero? Is there a real war?
Is there a true cause we're fighting for?
The wounds are bleeding, broken within
The wind is howling silencing our last roar

Everything's changed, the sky is different
The faces mirror all the feelings we have
Whispering voices seeking ears
Leave a mark in time we have left

The midnight's already gone
And the morning's yet too far
We've left them all behind,
The heroes of the war
they fought against the fraud
And against the cruel
But the truth
Just a windmill fight of Some careless greedy fools for Freedom
(we're the people)
It's the time
To find our good old freedom
(by any means)
Listen to it, can you hear it?
The wind of the broken freedom
(captured by the demons)
No one's a hero
In a war where the end
Is a false sacrifice for freedom
(captured by the demons)
Still blows, still blows

The wind is still blowing
And it's beating the chest of all
Who feels shortened and they all will suffocate
Speak very loud

Won't sleep
Falling deeper in hate
Captured by the demons

Part 2 – Ghosts from the Past

Upon the ashes
Build your own sandcastle
Find
All those clean thoughts
The perfect grains
Stronger than the wind
The ghosts from the past
Once builders of the sand
Now stalkers till the end
Lonely floating ash-leaving
Hear them but beware

Part 3 – Leave Your Mark

You're free to leave
You are free
To leave your mark

Should I do anything I could?
Shall I do anything at all?
Flying free as a bird means
Sailing the wind as a true friend
Please don't feed a destroying hurricane

There is a hero, there is a real war
There is a true cause we can fight for
The wounds are bleeding, yet they are healing
Peace a promise that the heroes once swore

Everything's changed, the sky is different

Shadow of the Fall

Is this sigh the cry of memories?
Thousands of familiar mysteries
Please, let me chase your fragrance I once knew Allow me one last time

Bittersweet flavour of forgotten kisses
Wandering, faded ghosts of untold wishes
Oh summer, dying sun, stay
Cause I don't want to get over you

Moaning of the unborn ideas
Clange from forsaken galerias
Icecold, far away, long ago, once upon
A tale that noone remembers

Amorphous silhouettes of once loved faces
Staring at me wih the obscured glances
Fallacious illusion wait
Cause I don't want to say goodbye

Over your dreams
Marching towards your door
Spreading and spreading
The shadow of the fall

Stealing my heart
Battering on my soul
Scrapig and scraping
It hurts me more and more

Vertiginous dance of shimmer and powder
Blows your mind so far away
Caliginous storm and earsplitting thunder brings Deliquescence and decay

Sweet Killer

Give it under my skin
This little killer - Cheater!!!
Give it into my vein
I want to be a dreamer – an illusion, a lamb
I want to show you – THIS!!!

Look into my eyes
Look and realize
They've been never-ever changed

Look into my veins
Look and feel the pain
This toxin is a killer... killin' me!!!

They are they are hugging me
They are they are hounding me
They are they are my best friends
Who killed me softly without hands

Genius

One man will leave this world full of pride
The fools will hate his ghost left behind

Don't let your genius die
In comfort life is a lie

If you
Let me cry your name
You won't be a guest
Cause there's nothing worse than emptiness
Only
Life can kill the pain
Your soul's ready to fly
When this world crumbles on your own you'll rely

You should always think twice who to obey who to trust

Each and every day you live the same way
The boring circle of work and all the things you have to pay
Weight on you and you feel there's nothing left to do
Wait till world stops let the music guide you

Generations

Empty streets
Such quiet feeling
Empty houses
I can't see the children playing

So many lamps
But there's no light
So many people
But there's no real life

Empty hearts
Just a lot of zombies
So many commands
But we don't see what we've done!
What we have done!

We have to start to breath the air
To take a walk in the rain
We are livin' our life too fast
Next generetion forgive us!

Empty ruins
They called it home
Empty words
they say you've got our cure

A lot of walls
There's no place to hide
If we want freedom
We have to stop the war

What we've done
It's not too late don't tell lies what have we done?

Lost Land

Where to forget would you go?
Watch your steps wanderer
Don't go fast or slow

Some find grief
Some find peace

All you see is grey and dry
And the depth allures the eye
Peace you have
The emptiness enchants you
In that lost land

Myriad deeds a man creates
Leave all this behind
Lay your heart beating in your hands
The end here never ends

Psycho

I – when only I am around
I check and there's no one
See me under the stare
Under the make up and
I'm just not there
Then pushups again
Meet every friend
I have it all in my hand
Day after day everything's fine
Walking on sunshine

I'll show you, show you what I do

I, pretender of life
You can accuse me no more
You, a servant of mine
You can breathe no more

I tear up, I cut out, I bite deep
I throw up, I'm hysterical, I grin
I distract myself

I stand in a raincoat and I can't feel anything
There is an axe in your face I'll eat your brain
I gotta return some videotapes everyday

Everyday!

Deep

Forget the days when the parasite would numb your bones,
No one can stand against the leech but you alone

Deep inside within your mind,
The demons you've created
Are running for their lives
Deep inside, your mind-made-up fears
Find the catch inside you, slow and deep

Deep inside the mind, killing off their kind

The silent echo grows into a giant worm,
Light up your spirit, attack and let this creeper burn

Horror show

Here in this small town
Built of our daydreams...

Thousands of corners are waiting for children
Never ever close your eyes!
Wind from the gardens whispers a secret
The monsters are among us!

Keep holding my hand until the end!
Watch out where you put your feet!
Remember, "Every town has an Elm Street"

When comes the night time
Strange voices callin'
Who's in the mirror?
They never ask!

Dont be afraid, just hold my hand
Well it will be fun!
Believe nothing you hear
And only one half that you see

Love Song

Some things are better left unsaid and untouched
You said though the struggle was never too much
You have to admit that you
Have found your calling of love

Don't make me desperate when I'm not with you at home
Feed me, I'm hungry but if I'm not leave me alone
Hope you won't
Never torn apart

Want your love
Darling, help me through
Want your love
But I don't want you

You are the only one that loves the cold heart and you care
Showing me the foolish grin you make everyday
And again you're laughing
Picking up your pieces

We crush the old image of love and happiness
All the people hate us for leaving this ship of mess
But the ocean
Is so wide and deep

You know I'm always high and you're the one who is always low
There is a lot of things about you that I don't wanna know
That's the deal between us
All that matters is lust

If we don't see each other everyday
Then we will fancy some more games to play
Hunting for the prey
Nothing else to say

Indulj el (Hungarian folk song)

Kimegyek az útra
Lenézek az úton
Látom édesemet
Ő is lát engemet

Akarom szólítani
Szánom búsítani
Mégis megszólítom
Egy szóval, kettővel

Ne menj el édesem
Ne hagyj el engemet
Sír a szívem érted
Majd meghalok érted

Könnyű a pókháló
Az is megtart engem
Csak egy hajszálon is Hozzád ránthatsz engem

Day-night I walk along
I think I'm all alone
I see you standing by
See your soul, you see mine

I have a word or two
I'd like to say to you
Don't want to cause you pain
More than time'll ever do

Never say goodbye
Never leave me behind
For you, love, my heart cries
For you, love, I would die

I feel easier
Than the air on the Earth
When your love fills my soul
Our hearts fly like lovebirds
